"FATHER TIME."—Dr. Brown will deliver his popular lecture on the above subject at the First M. E. church next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. Everybody young and old ought to hear Dr. The following is one of many press notices of this instructive lecture: "The lecture was an eloquent appeal to young men. It was enlivened by bright points and witty anecdotes, and will be long remembered by those privileged to hear it. It was not only amusing but instructive in the highest degree."—Portland Oregonian. This will be your opportunity to have a good laugh and gather information to carry you successfully through the year 1894.

MERRY SHRINKS.—This afternoon a delegation of Salem's prominent Masons went to Portland, to take part in the higher degree rites to be held in that city this evening. Among them were Aldermen J. H. Albert and E. Lafore, City Attorney Geo. Bingham, Supt. E. B. McElroy, Land Clerk G. W. Davis, Postmaster A. N. Gilbert, Jas. R. Davis, A. S. Brasfield, Harvey Jordan and Lee Steiner. Mrs. McElroy and Mrs. Brasfield accompanied the party. Mr. Albert secured their tickets in such a form that the boys can get home even if their S. P. pasteboard is lost, while Supt. McElroy and D'Arcy & Bingham will show the younger generation how it is done.

THE POPULISTS.—There is quite an attendance of Populists in the city today to attend the meeting at Grange hall, called by the executive committee. Geo. W. Weeks presided, and Miller Swank was secretary. The Omaha platform was endorsed and an organization by precincts perfected.

CITIZENS' MEETING.—The citizens of the second ward will meet tonight, to agree, if possible, on some one for alderman. They seem to favor reduction in city expenses, and will work to that end.

LAW SUIT.—D. W. Fraser vs. J. H. Bridges is a suit before Judge Hubbard today, to recover $360 damages on stock of goods bought by former of latter this summer. John Carson and Ford & Kaiser appear as attorneys.

A FINE GOAT.—County Clerk Egan bought a fine Angora goat today of Geo. B. Miller, of Gervais. This is a genuine Billy goat of the 33d degree.

AFTER A LUNY.—Sheriff Knight went north in the county today about 15 miles to apprehend a party charged with insanity.

CHICKEN AND PUMPKIN PIES.

How Thanksgiving Day Was Observed at the Pen.

ON THE DATE SET BY THE GOVERNOR

Rev. Granis Preaches All By His Eloquent Sermon.

Thanksgiving Day in prison is something anomalous. Still, it may be so ordered that it is a grateful break in the monotony of the convicts' existence. Such was the occasion yesterday at the penitentiary, where by grace of Governor Penneyer's proclamation, and the consideration of Superintendent Downing for the unfortunate creature under his care and dominion, a little relaxation of the rules and a really good dinner made the day one to be marked with a white feather in the prisoner's calendar.

The ordinary prison bill of fare was varied to the extent of giving each man a portion of mutton stew, with white bread and tea; followed by a pumpkin pie for each and a panikin of cider. No diminutive pies, either, or inferior material and construction, but a generous, broad, deep layer of sweetened and spiced pumpkin custard, shaped in a genuine pastry crust, and carefully baked in an oven of proper temperature. Indeed it is doubtful if a better was borne by any table in Salem. The cider was new and cold; and the general effect was one of thankfulness to the several sources of enjoyment, including Warden Berry, and Capt. Dickey, the prison commissary; who, believing that though a man may be a criminal he is not the less human and deserving of human treatment, do the best they can for the wretched and the forlorn they guard.

After the dinner the whole body of convicts were assembled in the chapel where service was held by Rev. Granis, who made an eloquent and touching discourse on the theme of "Human Government," basing his remarks on the admonition of St. Paul to the church at Rome: "Let everyone be subject unto the higher powers." Epistle to the Romans, chapter xiii. It is a difficult thing to preach a Thanksgiving sermon, or, indeed, any sermon, to a congregation of convicts as it requires a deal of diplomacy to tell sin the truth, and yet make it palatable. But the reverend gentleman evoked from many a heart before him a fervent though unspoken response of "We thank thee, Oh Lord!" and "Praise God from whom all blessings flow."

There were quite a number of visitors present who betrayed great interest in the celebration under such gloomy conditions, and who cast many curious glances over the 350 faces turned to ward the preacher, where recognition of individuals of the common types is impossible and the subjects are only distinguishable by stature, color of hair, and other physical attributes that give no clue nor identity to mental traits or cause of imprisonment.

The officers and guards, inspired by the attitude of the superintendent and warden, gave a little more than usual license to men speaking, and were conveniently deaf to a little more confusion than is daily tolerated within the walls and bars. Not a few of the convicts spoke their thanks and all looked their satisfaction with the treatment accorded them on Thanksgiving Day, 1893.

FOR PERSONAL ROAD TAX.

A Man in Jail for Not Paying the Supervisor.

Alexander Shepard was committed by Justice Edes today for four and a half days to the county jail for not paying his personal road tax.

He was assessed two days work for 1893 in district No. 2. He was regularly warned to work his tax, but failed to do so. He has no property that could be levied upon. All this is set out in the pleadings. The case was brought by Geo. H. Croslan, road supervisor. The judgment is for $3.60 and costs, $9.60 in all.

According to the laws of 1893 such a judgment is enforced the same as a fine in a criminal action. Hence the imprisonment. This is the first case of a white man having this law applied so rigorously, as the statute was originally passed to collect road work from Chinese.

THE FRATERNAL ORDERS.

Something About the Ancient United Workmen.

Mr. Green, of this city, who is a statistician of considerable ability and a loyal workman has prepared the following for the JOURNAL.

THE A. O. U. W.
A few lines in regard to the A. O. U. W. order for the readers of your serviceable paper we think would be in place. We are misrepresented from all quarters, mostly by those not knowing the benefits to be derived by belonging. Also by parties that try to down us for other reasons. The order is in a very flourishing condition at this time and below you will find by referring to statistics we have made a great growth. Finances for this year have cut into our growth but nevertheless we are growing. The two lodges located here are doing well. Even more, at almost every lodge meeting some new name is added to our list of members. The year 1892 our gain in the order was 53,193, the average cost to date was $9.31. For the year 1891 was $10.19. Total amount paid out since organizing for deaths, $44,632,000; relief paid $1,138,636.43. Remember our order is young yet. Jan. 1, 1869, our membership was only 50, and Jan. 1, 1893, was 308,575. As we grow older our losses by suspensions are less. One reason, men are not joining for the novelty of it. We cannot see why our order should not live and continue to grow at a cost not exceeding $15.00 per thousand.

We have examined the records of several fraternal and benevolent societies. Supposing these to be correct we give them:

ORDER.	DEATH RATE
I. O. O. F., 696,998 members,	11.10
A. F. & A. M., 695,103 "	15.10
A. O. U. W., 308,575 "	10.19
K. of H.	16.20
K. of L. of H.	12.80
A. M. of L. H.	16.40
K. of P. End. Rank	13.90
Catholic K. of A.	14.80
Fall Sons of Israel	12.80

At a glance you can see how we stand with the others. We extend a fraternity almost equal to any fraternal order. On application to any member, a constitution and by laws can be had set forth the order in full. Cost of joining the order in this state is only $5.50. This is done on account of the hard times and extends up to March 1st, 1894.

WILLAMETTE NOTES.

Pres. Hawley gave his famous and comprehensive lecture on the "Behring Sea Fisheries" last night at the Y. M. C. A. hall to a fair and appreciative audience.

Prof. Hansee has been absent from her classes on two days of this week on account of illness, but was in her accustomed place again yesterday.

Prof. Cochran has manufactured an apparatus to manufacture H₂S (hydrogen di Sulphide), and will have hereafter, in the laboratory a full supply of that foul-smelling compound on draft in as large quantities as you desire or larger.

A telegram was received on Thursday from Miss Austin, of Woodburn, stating the death of her mother, to whose bedside she was called about a week ago. Miss Austin was compelled to leave school last year after a short attendance on account of her own sickness. It is hoped that she may be able again to return.

Miss Jennie Carter of Union, entered school on Monday. She is the sister of M. J. Carter, county school superintendent at that place, and sister of Miles Carter, who was in school in '91. She is making her home with Miss Adair.

The Philodorian society received their shipment of four dozen chairs (oak diners) for their hall. They are fine and add much to making their hall appear both elegant and cozy. Some one has suggested however that they will have to amputate the legs of the chairs a little above the floor, for some of the more diminutive members are not able to touch their feet to the floor, which necessitates them in rising, to get down before they can get up.

That Japanese tea has come at last; it will occur Wednesday evening, Nov. 23, in the university chapel. The program contains several pieces from local talent, besides the tea proper. The young ladies appear in Japanese costume and there will be a solo in Japanese by Prof. M. G. Scriber. The object of this program is a worthy one—that of paying for the chairs above mentioned.
